

A young child wearing a red and white Santa hat and a blue and white striped shirt is sitting on the floor, smiling and opening a gift box. The gift box is wrapped in dark paper with a white floral pattern. The child is holding the top flap of the box, which is partially open. In the background, there is a window with a view of a snowy landscape and a Christmas tree decorated with lights and ornaments. The scene is lit with warm, soft light, creating a cozy and festive atmosphere.
